

Vice Chancellor's Biography

Professor Ahmed El Tayeb Ahmed has been appointed as the Vice Chancellor of the Sudan University of Science and Technology (SUST) on May 12, 2002.

He has more than 30 years of experience as an accomplished scholar, academic staff, and administrator.

Born in Kassala, Sudan in 1947, V.C. Ahmed received his B.Sc. degree in Civil Engineering from the Faculty of Engineering and Architecture, University of Khartoum in 1972, and his Ph.D. degree from the Civil Engineering Department, Faculty of Science, University of Edinburgh in 1977.

He served as a researcher at the Building and Read Research Institute and as an Assistants Professor at the Civil Engineering Department, University of Khartoum from 1977 to 1979. He then Joined the Civil Engineering Department of King Saud University, Saudi Arabia where he worked until 1990.

In 1990 he was appointed as the Deputy Dean of the Faculty of Engineering Sciences of Omdurman Islamic University, where he worked until 1994.

In 1994 he took the position of the Dean, College of Engineering, SUST where he was promoted to full Professor of Civil Engineering in 1998.

In June 2001 he was appointed as the Secretary General of the Ministry of Higher Education and Scientific Research.

Professor Ahmed has more than 25 technical papers in the fields of concrete, concrete structures and technical education. He is an active member of many professional councils and societies as well as a consultant of civil engineering.